TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Getting bogged down in daily activity is so easy.

For this reason I have found Bill Oliver's input as a Business Coach over almost two years to be invaluable. He has helped at the highest strategic level.

Because he has read widely and integrated the principles of some of the most successful business and marketing minds on earth, he has made quite a difference to my bottom line. For this reason, I have renewed his contract twice.

I have found him exceptional in:

- a) Reminding me to work ON my business as well as IN it.
- b) Keeping before me the long term plan so I don't get bogged down in daily work.
- c) Giving me strategies for a long term exit strategy.
- d) Being there to brainstorm and bounce off ideas
- e) Keeping me focused on priorities.
- f) Business development
- g) Ideas for organisation.
- h) Staff Training
- i) Marketing &
- j) Sales writing.
